The program is free and open to all members of Charles Evering VFW Post 6506 and applies to military personnel serving (or who have served) during the "War on Terrorism" both in the United States and abroad.

A Blue Banner (with certificate) can be awarded to a living veteran who is serving (or who has served); and, a Gold Banner (with certificate) can be awarded to a family member of a deceased veteran during the period named above. The War on Terrorism began on September 11, 2001 and continues to present.

Banners are displayed in the home to show a family's pride in their veteran.

Please contact the program Chairman, Ron Hall at 443-869-0115 for information needed in obtaining a banner. The program is entirely paid for by your Post.
